

District of Columbia Society for Human Resource Management (DC SHRM) Awarded Platinum EXCEL Award

SMG is excited to announce the District of Columbia Society for Human Resource Management (DC SHRM) was awarded the 2020 Platinum EXCEL Award on behalf of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). This is the fifth year in a row that DC SHRM has won the highest level Excel Award.

The award winning programs and services highlighted in DC SHRM's 2020 EXCEL Platinum Award included the following: a highly regarded mentoring program; the organization's outstanding response to COVID-19 by providing the HR community with a resource center and educational webinars; a second chance hiring initiative held in collaboration with the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA); and the many ways the association continued to educate and connect its members in a virtual format.

Johnny C. Taylor, Jr., SHRM-SCP, President and CEO of SHRM said, "So much of SHRM's positive impact on our workplaces can be traced back to the dedication of our chapters and state councils like DC SHRM. I've seen firsthand how these leaders drive meaningful changes to build workplaces where employers and employees can thrive together," said Johnny C. Taylor, Jr., SHRM-SCP, president and chief executive officer of SHRM. "The Platinum EXCEL Award not only honors DC SHRM's accomplishments in 2020, but it's also a testament to the hard work it took to get there."

Congratulations, DC SHRM.
